WELCOME TO

Fantasy Fest 2015

ALL HALLOWS INTERGALACTIC FREAK SHOW!

Whether this is your first visit to Fantasy Fest or your 36th, we know you'll find things new and thrilling during 10 days that are unlike any others all year. Jump in and join thousands of magical, haunted, interstellar freaks and have an out-of-this-world experience. It's always thrilling – and inspiring for next year – to see the truly innovative costumes, masks, parade floats, entertainers and other forms of creativity on display.

If you don't already have a special costume or two, you'll find all sorts of options available from our local merchants. And once you are disguised to stand out or blend in with the zany crowd, show off your new look at some of the many costume contests going on during Fantasy Fest. You could win fun prizes and coveted bragging rights.

With 50 events including, but not limited to Irish Kevin's annual party celebrating the 80's, a Star Wars-themed burlesque, a couple of over-the-top pool parties, an indoor beach party, the always popular Pet Masquerade, several opportunities to show off your moves under black lights, a Street Fair that ramps up the excitement on Duval and a kids' costume contest during Children's Day, there is something for everyone.

Highlights this year include the 33rd Annual Headdress Ball, which is moving to a new night (Thursday), a new, larger location at the Truman Waterfront, and increasing its top prize to $3,000. Always an impressive show, this year the Headdress Ball promises to be one for the record books.

Many Fantasy Fest events benefit local nonprofits, offering truly unique ways to support important community needs while having a fabulous time. Consider checking out the Royal Coronation Ball, which benefits AIDS Help, or one of the other charitable and fun events happening this year.

None of the parties – none of the fun – could happen without the hard work of the island's local residents and businesses, the help and support of our neighbors throughout the Florida Keys or without the generosity of our fantastic sponsors. Notice the Official Fantasy Fest Sponsor posters hanging in local businesses and let them know you're having a good time and appreciate their part in making Fantasy Fest happen.

We are grateful to all our sponsors. Welcome to new sponsor Fireball Whisky, the Official Whiskey of Fantasy Fest 2015. Welcome back to 3Wishes.com, which is again this year's parade title sponsor, as well as to all our loyal sponsors.

We are pleased to again be joined by Official Fantasy Fest sponsors such as Bud Light, Rex Goliath Wines, Coca-Cola, and an impressive list of movers and shakers. A special thanks to the people who help us get the word out, including The Key West Citizen, FloridaKeys.com and Comcast, and to The Monroe County Tourist Development Council, which continues to be vital to the success of Fantasy Fest.

Fantasy Fest would not be the outrageous, but safe party it is without the hard work of our fire, law enforcement and public works personnel. We count on them to handle anything that 70,000 people and Mother Nature throws their way, and they've never let us down. Thank them for the work they do, and help them do their jobs by complying with all of the Fantasy Fest rules and regulations you will find in this guide.

ROB O'NEAL/The Citizen

Along with the amazing professionals, including the crack team of aliens that staff the Fantasy Fest office, Fantasy Fest depends on a fantastic group of men and women who volunteer their services for the good of the party. Madness Monitors and Parade Ambassadors will be along the parade route and throughout the Street Fair and Promenade to help keep everyone safe. Please heed their advice and instructions.

It's a big job to keep our little slice of paradise clean. Please utilize the trash and recycling bins you'll find throughout the festival area.

We are very proud of our community and invite you to make our home yours during the next 10 days. Please treat our hometown as you would your own.

Party responsibly - be polite, have patience, maintain your sense of humor and obey all rules while exploring the unique events we have to offer.

And, remember, nudity is not allowed! If you utilize the skills of the world-class body painting artists attending Fantasy Fest, make sure the application is out of public view, and you must cover up as you leave the designated Fantasy Zone. We are the only city in the world with an ordinance stating specifically that paint is not considered clothing; so please make sure all appropriate areas are covered.

Enjoy all the events of Fantasy Fest 2015, and take the time to check out our excellent restaurants, bars, shops and attractions. Plan to come back and see what we've cooked up for 2016. Tell your friends you had a spectacular time, but what else you tell them or don't is up to you.

— Linda O'Brien, director

Fantasy Fest is grateful for the support of sponsors, including Almond Tree Inn, Best Western Hibiscus Motel, Boyd's Key West Campground, Inc., The Citizen, KeysTix.com, Marrero's Guest Mansion, Pier House, Rex Goliath Wines, Rum Barrel, and Waterfront Playhouse.

ROYAL CORONATION BALL FOR KING AND QUEEN OF FANTASY FEST 2015

The Galactic Carnival is coming to an end...but not without one final stroll around the otherworldly midway. That's because there's still The Coronation Ball, the capper to the King and Queen of Fantasy Fest events. On Oct. 23, one final party, with the Atlantic surf as the soundtrack and a Friday night sky going South Florida violet as the backdrop, will determine who becomes 2015's reigning Royalty.

Vicky Shields, Mark Watson, Cameron Zbikowski and Jodyrae Campbell have worked tirelessly as goodwill ambassadors for AIDS Help (the benefiting organization) for 8 weeks of frenzied, frisky, feisty and always fabulous fundraising events Keys-wide, assisted by a corps of volunteers, to raise the most money and ascend to the throne. Special events ranged from a weekly 'Aqua Idol' competition to upstairs Sunday BINGO at the 801 Bourbon Bar and the 3rd Annual Red Shirt Run, held September 26th.

ROYAL CORONATION BALL

Southernmost Beach Café,
1405 Duval St.
Oct. 23, 6 PM, $10 - $60

The Royal Coronation Ball, - the evening on the sand - will be produced, like last year, by David Chesnet and hosted by the talented J.B. McLendon.

"We never know quite what to expect when our 4 candidates take the stage," said AIDS Help Executive Director Scott Pridgen. "They may somehow reprise their Kick-Off production number, stage something brand-new, or simply address the audience from the heart."

Admission to The Royal Coronation is $10 and includes two votes for the candidate(s) of your choice. Check keystix.com to see if $60 VIP table seating, which includes a buffet and two votes, is still available.

For more information, visit AIDSHelp.cc, or call the main switchboard at 305-296-6196.

REX GOLIATH WINES OFFICIAL WINE OF FANTASY FEST

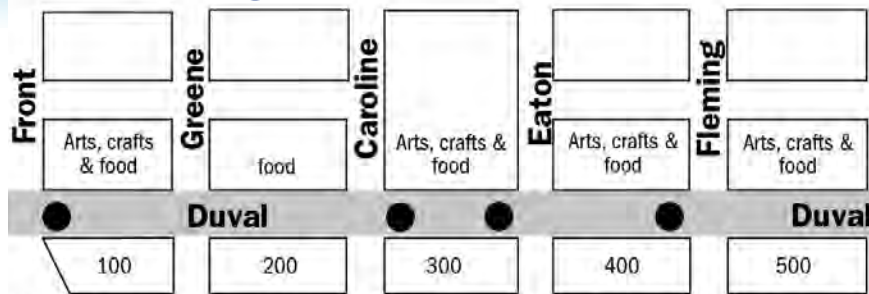

At the turn of the 20th century, HRM (His Royal Majesty) Rex Goliath was the treasured attraction of a Texas circus. People came from far and wide to behold the 47 lb. bird, billed as the "World's Largest Rooster." The Rex-Goliath label replicates the one-of-a-kind vintage artwork from the circus banner that hung above Rex's roost, and we proudly honor Rex with premium varietal wines.

Rex-Goliath wines are a tribute to Rex's larger-than-life personality, with bold, fruit-forward flavors that are sure to please. In essence, Rex is all about letting BOLD fruit flavors express themselves in an easy-to-drink, worry-free fashion. Bold Wines. Fun Times. Fantasy Fest is pleased to welcome Rex Goliath Wines as the Official Wine of Fantasy Fest 2015! RexGoliath.com

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30 AND SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31

No Space Elephants (Probably) but Pretty Much Everything Else at annual Fantasy Fest Street Fair and Street Promenade.

FANTASY FEST STREET FAIR

The Fantasy Fest Street Fair is sure to quench all of your appetites as it takes over Duval St. on Friday, October 30. This annual event is never the same year to year as food vendors, arts and craftspeople and thirst-quenching libation stations line Key West's golden mile. See what everyone else is doing and come strut your stuff throughout the day and deep into the night during this infamous street party.

The Street Fair runs from noon until 10 PM. If you don't yet have a costume or need one more fabulous costume, you'll have plenty of options at the Street Fair, where vendors will be lined up to sell you exotically expressive masks, glittering face decorations and maybe even the last few bells and whistles needed for the perfect ringmaster's ensemble.

There will be fabulous feathers, luxurious leather and lace and everything in between. There are even outfits for your favorite pet. The fair boasts unique artisans from beautiful handmade jewelry to fine art. Ask about having your new treasures shipped home so that your hands stay free for more shopping.

Just like a circus midway, food and drink will be everywhere you look from conch salad and crab cakes to jerk chicken and BBQ ribs along with a hearty group of Greek and Latin purveyors. Make sure you stroll the length of the street fair and sample the old favorites along with some of the delicious new delights.

Support our local charities and wet your whistle at one of the five Libation Stations located throughout the fair on Duval St. The on-street, sanctioned vendors sporting the Fantasy Fest logo serve Bud Light beer, mixed drinks featuring creative coolers and samplings from Rex Goliath Wines, Fireball Whisky, Coca-Cola, Dasani Water and Monster Energy Drink. count on the sales from the libation booths to support their important civic activities throughout the year.

The far end of the 700 block features the Bourbon Street Pub Tea Dance starting at 1 PM. The heart-pumping amplified music will draw you from blocks away and the bevy of boys, boas and beads will keep you rocking at this on-the-street block party. Look up at the balcony for one-of-a-kind display of delirious dancers and be prepared for zingy insults from Key West's favorite drag queens.

And, PLEASE, don't forget to RECYCLE! Recycling containers donated by Coca-Cola will be everywhere. Drop your plastic cups and bottles and paper goods (no food, please) in the appropriate receptacles and move on into the revelry with your head held high and your eyes wide open to the night's delights.

visitors, locals and aliens can walk freely and enjoy the shops and the people watching.

The side streets off Duval will become cuisine central with food and libation vendors ready to feed the hungry crowds before, during and after the 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade. A group of our sponsor vendors will set up on lower Duval Street from noon until 4 PM selling Fantasy Fest merchandise, offering tastes of Monster Energy Drink, Fireball Whisky and Rex Goliath wines, as well as uniquely-flavored cigars to get you charged up for the night's spectacle.

As always, the Promenade will feature many of Key West's outstanding local performers. With a wide range of musical styles, Entertainment Coordinator Gordon Ross promises the music will help everyone get their interstellar groove on.

"Key West is so full of talent, I could fill three days, not just three hours, with no trouble at all," Ross said.

Two stages will provide an extravaganza of music and dance from noon until 3:45 PM. Stage one is located in front of the La Concha Hotel at 430 Duval St. and stage two is in front of the Old Town Mexican Café at 609 Duval St.

Featured performers will include Melody Cooper, who again travelled to Spain this summer to continue enhancing her craft. Cooper is the keyboardist and lead vocalist for the crowd-pleasing Paradise Big Band, which will also play on the La Concha stage on Saturday.

Jodyrae Campbell, who often exercises her gorgeous voice at the Aqua Idol contests and was one of the original Spectrelles, will hit the Promenade stage. Also at 609 Duval St. will be local guitarist and vocalist Steve Green and the Coffee Mill Cultural Center dancers will return with their high energy dance styles.

Danny Simpson of Private Ear Recording will provide sound for both stages and bring his guitar out to help entertain the crowds. The 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade kicks off at 7 PM and travels up Duval St. for its out-of-this-world finish.

MASQUERADE MARCH 2015

Like all the best aliens, the Masquerade March has two heads and a drink in each hand. Join the hugely popular Fantasy Fest tradition, known as the local's parade, highlighting costumes, creativity and community.

After starting together at the Key West Cemetery on Frances St., half of the costumed marchers head for Truman Ave. and the other half turn toward Fleming St. – proudly marching the wrong way down that one-way street.

The Masquerade March is a grown-up treat (no tricks). It's a moving cocktail & dance party, where each half of the parade stops at participating guest houses, which – while supplies last – hands out complimentary beverages. And for an extra special treat, the Truman Route stops for a mid-March party break at the Southernmost Hotel.

One route is led by the Hollywood Band, and the other by the Junkanoos, both keeping the energy high as the marchers travel down and around ending up on Duval St., where the party continues with the annual Duval Street Fair.

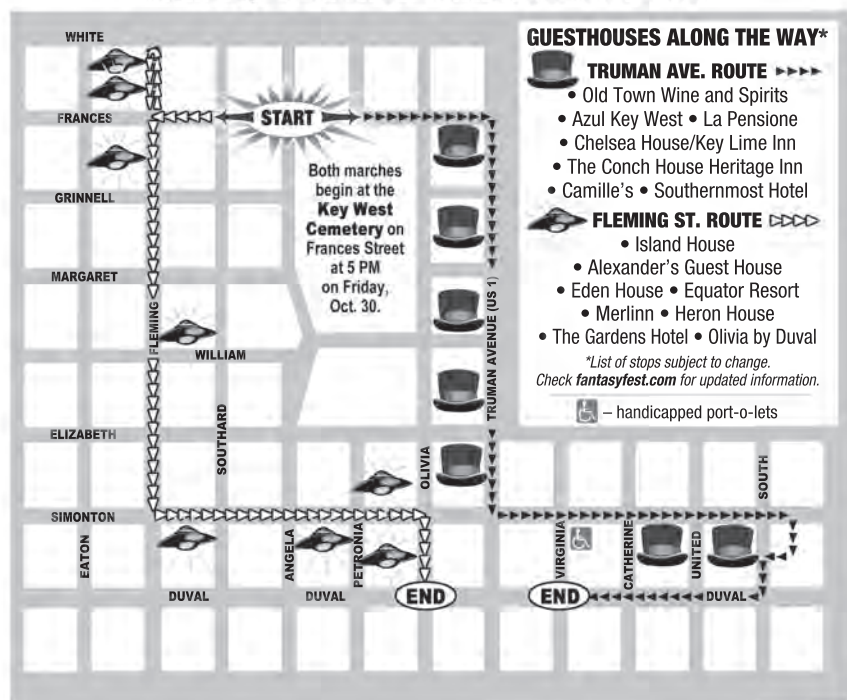

FRIDAY
OCTOBER 30

MASQUERADE MARCH

Key West Cemetery, Frances St.
Oct. 30, 5 PM, Free

MASQUERADE MARCH 2015

Feel free to join the Masquerade March as a moving mosaic of costumed revelers strut their wacky costumes through Old Town. The march begins at the Frances Street entrance of the Key West Cemetery. One route winds south to Truman Avenue (➡➡➡) and the other one makes its way north for Fleming Street (⇄⇄⇄).

LEGEND: ➡ — cocktail stops on the Fleming route ⇄ — cocktail stops on the Truman route ♿ — handicapped port-o-lets

"The march is a fun Key West tradition of hospitality and over-the-top revelry. It's a great way to get pumped up as Fantasy Fest approaches its crescendo," said Mimi McDonald, 2015 Masquerade March Coordinator. "If you are coming to Fantasy Fest, the Masquerade March should be on your must-do list."

The Masquerade March is one of the places where you'll see fantastic and fabulous costume interpretations of this year's Fantasy Fest theme. This is where people show off both individual costumes and themed group ensembles. Memorable marchers from prior years have included a troupe carrying a 20-foot-long blue and orange Japanese-style dragon, a trio of archangels with huge white-feathered wings, and a group of puppy-costumed dancers that seemed to comprise nearly all of the "101 Dalmatians."

In addition to the up to 10,000 marchers each year, the Masquerade March draws thousands of spectators to cheer the marchers along the route – and often the spectators jump in and join the parade for a rollicking, good time. Meet up at the Key West Cemetery Frances St. entrance at 5 PM or join anywhere along either route.

While Fantasy Fest encourages and looks forward to seeing the amazing creativity the march generates, please remember the march travels through local neighborhoods and costumes do need to cover all the essential bits. And, finally, please leave behind only memories, dispose of trash properly and please recycle.

ENTER THE FANTASY ZONE

On Friday, Oct. 30 and Saturday, Oct. 31, portions of Duval Street and the adjoining side streets will be designated as the official Fantasy Zone. The city of Key West will temporarily suspend the normal open container law within the Fantasy Zone for these two days only. From noon to midnight revelers can stroll, march, prance or do the super shuffle while sipping libations along Duval Street from Front to South streets, as well as intersecting cross streets from Simonton to Whitehead St.

For your safety, cans and glass bottles are not allowed. Please use only the paper and plastic cups available at local bars and from vendors. Of course, thanks to our thoughtful city staff, all festival-goers may properly dispose of drink containers in the many recycle bins available at Fantasy Zone exits.

PORT-O-LETS SPELL RELIEF

Port-o-lets are just about everywhere you may need to go during the Street Fair, Duval Street Promenade and 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade. Fantasy Fest sponsor Waste Management is providing safe and clean relief stations bordering the Duval Street festival activities. When the urge strikes, be sure to look for directional arrows on Duval Street pointing toward the port-o-let locations on the cross streets. Remember, relief is always just around the corner!

A MINOR REMINDER

All festival attendees must have been born on or before the current date in 1994 to purchase or consume alcohol at the Street Fair liquor booths. Please make sure you have appropriate identification in order to purchase alcoholic beverages. Any person who purchases alcohol for a minor will be cited and arrested.

HERE TO SAVE THE DAY

Key West Fire Dept. personnel will provide first aid treatment through the use of emergency gators during the festival on Friday, Oct 30 and Saturday, Oct 31. In case of emergency, please call 911 with your location and the emergency vehicles will arrive as quickly as possible. Rescue trucks will be strategically stationed at various locations

PARTY POSITIONS

The Key West Tourist Development Association and the Key West Police Department welcome you to Florida's premier masking and costuming celebration and encourage you to participate in all the many exciting events of the "All Hallows Intergalactic Freak Show." We want you to have an interstellar adventure, but following a few simple rules will make Fantasy Fest 2015 a safe and enjoyable time.

Below, the City of Key West Police Department summarizes the rules and laws by which you must abide:

- No glass containers are allowed in the designated "Fantasy Zone." Drink from paper or plastic cups provided by bars and vendors.
- Open containers of alcohol are not allowed outside the Fantasy Zone. Please stay inside the party area while you are carrying open alcoholic beverages. For your convenience, trashcans and recycle bins are located along the boundary of the Fantasy Zone. Toss your cups in the recycle bins as you leave the area as Waste Management now recycles plastics 1 through 7.

- The Fantasy Zone is marked with bright pink caution tape. As you leave the Fantasy Zone, please remember that all normal laws apply.
- Nudity is ILLEGAL and is NOT allowed on public property or in public view at any time inside or outside of the Fantasy Zone.
- Lewd acts on public property or in public view are strictly ILLEGAL and NOT tolerated.
- Body painting is allowed but must be performed in enclosed or screened in areas, entirely out of public view. Painted female breasts are permitted ONLY WITHIN the designated Fantasy Zone. Outside of the Fantasy Zone, please wear a cover-up to avoid ILLEGAL exposure on public property and on all city streets.

- No backpacks, coolers, packages, water guns, weapons or replica weapons will be allowed.

Please be courteous and patient with enforcement officers and with each other.

FANTASY FEST ASKS PARTYGOERS FOR Stellar Cooperation

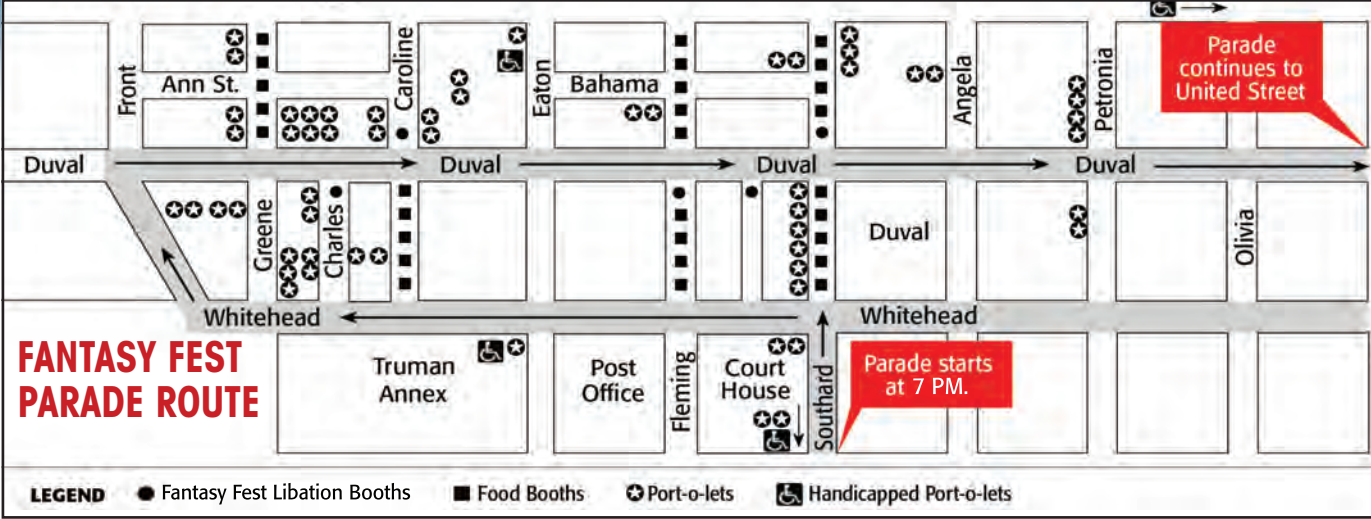

Key West's world-renowned parade spectacle takes over Duval Street this October with a spooktacular flurry of ghosts, aliens and all the freaks you'd find under a cosmic ringmaster's big top, cheered on by a fantastic crowd of revelers. The All Hallows Intergalactic Freak Show will inspire an out-of-this-world parade and a 10-day party like none you've ever seen. Fantasy Fest organizers are encouraging partygoers to have a great time and stay safe.

PARADE VIEWING

The 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade launches its extraterrestrial madness from the Gulf of Mexico to the Atlantic Ocean on Saturday, Oct. 31, 2015. The parade steps off at 7 PM and takes at least two hours to complete.

It is expected to reach its most challenging, 120-degree turn at Front and Duval Streets at roughly 7:45 PM and should be in the upper blocks of Duval Street around 8:30 PM.

If you're hoping to see the extravaganza and get home at a reasonable hour, try to catch the madness as it passes through the intersection of Southard and Whitehead Streets. Upper Duval, beyond Virginia Street, is often less congested and tends to be a little friendlier for those who are somewhat claustrophobic. Please remember, the downtown area is very congested and parking is limited because most streets remain closed until the parade is completed.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESS

A special area for wheelchair-accessible viewing of the 2015 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade will be available on Duval Street at Virginia Street. Handicapped-accessible parking and port-o-lets will be available near the Gato Building at the corner of Virginia and Simonton Streets.

BARRICADES

Barricades will be placed in congested areas along the parade route to keep spectators safe and to allow the parade entrants room to perform. These simple yet vital pieces of equipment can keep revelers from ending up under the wheels of a magnificent float. They're put up with safety in mind, so please be a good sport when city employees begin setting them in place before the parade.

The parade needs extra leeway from the crowd at intersections where the procession makes turns. Please cooperate with parade ambassadors and law enforcement personnel to provide a safe turning radius for the parade vehicles.

Please be cautious around the barricades and step out of the way when city workers disassemble them after the parade. It's a challenging job, so give them an encouraging word when you see them.

PARADE AMBASSADORS

More than 100 Parade Ambassadors will be stationed along the parade route to help keep the spectators out of harm's way and from under the wheels of the rolling festivities.

These very special people stay sober on party night to be the responsible shepherds of the 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade.

You will recognize these noble, fun-loving people by their distinctive T-shirts. They each have undergone extensive training sessions for this very important job and they are in radio contact with the parade director and law enforcement personnel. Please let them know we appreciate them. Smile, thank them, and cooperate with their directions.

IT'S POLITE TO ASK FIRST

Please ask permission before snapping photos of other partygoers and practice positive festival etiquette by treating other people's costumes (no matter how skimpy) as works of art. Look and admire, but don't touch!

STREET CLOSURES

To accommodate the many street activities during Fantasy Fest, portions of several streets will be closed during the festivities and the parade.

- On Friday, Oct. 30, Duval Street from Front Street to Truman Avenue is closed to traffic beginning at 10 AM. Side street crossings are at Front Street, Eaton Street, Fleming Street, Southard Street, Angela Street, Olivia Street, and Truman Avenue.
- On Saturday, Oct. 31, beginning at 10 AM, the following streets will be closed: Duval Street is closed from Front Street to Truman Avenue.

Front Street, Eaton Street, and Truman Avenue are the only accessible cross streets.

- On Saturday, Oct. 31 from 4 PM until the parade ends, Whitehead Street is closed from Truman Avenue to Front Street. All Duval crossings are closed from Front Street to United Street. Southard Street from Truman Waterfront to Simonton Street will also be closed.
- Several parking lots will also be closed from 8 AM on Friday, Oct. 30 until noon on Sunday, Nov. 1: the parking lot in the 500 block of Thomas Street, the parking lot in the 300 block of Fleming Street, as well as the 500 block of Angela Street.

Alien Freaks Crash All Hallows Party

ON DUVAL STREET FOR SPECTACULAR FESTIVAL AND PARADE

What would happen if aliens invaded and nobody noticed because it happened during one of Florida's biggest parties? We're going to find out when the "All Hallows Intergalactic Freak Show" 2015 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade kicks off on Key West's world-famous Duval Street on Saturday, October 31 at 7 PM.

It will be everything you can imagine when little green men mix with the witches, ghosts and goblins and stir in a splash of Key West craziness. Your most outrageous interstellar fantasies will come to life as more than 40 parade entries maneuver through an 60,000+ crowd of Fantasy Fest revelers also dressed to thrill. You won't know where to look.

3Wishes.com, the parade's sponsor, has put together an alien and Stonehenge-themed float that will delight you with its mix of sexy, costumed beauties and a fun take on the ever mysterious Stonehenge.

Behind the 3Wishes.com float, the Fantasy Fest King and Queen will preside over the festivities from their elevated portion of the universe. The Fantasy Fest King and Queen have earned their royal spot by helping to raise money for AIDS Help, a local non-profit that cares for those living with HIV/AIDS.

The interstellar parade starts in Andromeda Galaxy and touches down at the western end of Southard Street at 7 PM, proceeds down Whitehead Street to Front Street, and then makes the turn up Duval Street for the spooktacular finish.

"I think people will really be astonished at what the entrants did with the parade floats this year," said Lindsey Sigafoos, the 2015 Parade Director.

SATURDAY

Buy the little green men a drink while you wait for the parade to get to the top of Duval St., Sigafoos suggests. "It'll be worth the wait and you'll make some new friends in the process!"

A colossal band of volunteer Parade Ambassadors, wearing custom T-shirts helps keep the parade moving smoothly down the route. Parade Ambassadors are in constant contact with parade officials and law enforcement officers. They also know the locations of fire and rescue units.

"Our ambassadors are here to help manage the madness" says Sigafoos. "Many of them return year after year to help control the pace of the parade as well as keep the crowd safe and away from the floats. We couldn't have such a successful parade without them!"

The shoulder-to-shoulder crowds along Duval Street are typically good-natured and easygoing. The overwhelming masses congregate along the 200 and 300 blocks of Duval. Upper Duval, south of Truman Avenue, tends to be a bit more mellow, but we can't make any promises.

There are hundreds of barricades along the route to ensure parade units have enough room to maneuver and entertain. Always be careful around the barricades to avoid knocking them over or tripping. City workers set them up before the parade and then collect them soon after the parade.

ANDY NEWMAN/Newman PR

"Our friends from Public Works have a tough job," Sigafoos says. "They're working hard while thousands of people are, literally, partying around them. Be gracious and let them know you appreciate the work they do keeping everyone safe."

Winners of the 2015 parade and the announcement of the 2016 Fantasy Fest theme will be revealed in the local media Sunday, Nov. 1.

Thanks to our wonderful sponsors including: Four Star Rentals, Garden of Eden, Key West Aloe, La Te Da, Orchid Key Inn, Schooner Wharf Bar, Santa Maria Suites, Tom Sawyer's Keyboard Advertising, Truman Hotel, and Vacation Homes of Key West.

MEET PARADE DIRECTOR

Lindsey Sigafoos

Key to the excitement and fun of Fantasy Fest is Parade Director Lindsey Sigafoos, who also wears a number of hats in the Fantasy Fest office, including helping to keep our generous sponsors on board and up-to-date. She has been critical to producing the Fantasy Fest parade for the past 3 years, and Fantasy Fest Director Linda O'Brien calls her, "One of the best account managers I've ever worked with. Her responsiveness and commitment to sponsor satisfaction really impresses." If you run into her, ask her about her Pez collection.

Hometown: Virginia Beach, Virginia

How long have you been in Key West? About 3 glorious years

What attracted you here? My mom spent most of her childhood in Key West, and we vacationed here as a family. I fell in love with the island life and the cultural diversity.

What's your favorite part of Fantasy Fest? My favorite part of Fantasy Fest is the last Friday and Saturday which have the Masquerade March and the 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade. This is my favorite part because this is when locals and tourists come together, and you get to see the true magic of Fantasy Fest!

Where is your favorite non-Keys place to vacation and why?

Hawaii – because I'm a beach bum at heart and the landscape is breathtaking. You can be on the beach one hour and hiking on a volcano or in the tropical rain forest the next.

What was your favorite Halloween costume as a kid? Hands down, the year I was Tin Man. My mom made my costume by hand and it was awesome!!! She used dryer vents for my legs and an oil funnel for my hat, all sprayed silver. Of course I had a heart!!!

What are your top 5 tips for enjoying the parade?

1. Get to Duval early so you can get a prime viewing location.
2. Pace yourself on the booze --you don't want to be hazy or running to the bathroom every 5 seconds once the parade starts.
3. Dress up!! The more creative your costume is, the more beads you will get!!
4. Listen to the parade ambassadors, police, and ME :)!! If you follow directions, you will stay safe and have an enjoyable time.
5. Don't be nude, it's just rude.

Thanks to our wonderful sponsors, including: ATL Productions, Coyote Ugly, Hard Rock Café, Key West Express, Lazy Gecko, Marriott Courtyard, The Reach: A Waldorf Astoria Resort, Reddy Ice, San Carlos Institute and The Marker Waterfront Resort.

Coca-Cola once again is the official soft drink sponsor for Fantasy Fest. Sticking with Coca-Cola's mission to refresh the world, mind, body and spirit, they are helping to inspire moments of joy at Fantasy Fest 2015. Coca-Cola has also generously donated over 100 recycling bins this year, and would like to remind everyone to please recycle responsibly.

Sales Center Manager JD Smith is excited about partnering with Fantasy Fest. "At Coca-Cola, each local bottling facility gets involved with the community in which we do business to create a better place for everyone to live. Through our commitment with Fantasy Fest to help in the recycling efforts, we feel we exemplify our motto to LIVE POSITIVELY!"

HELP SAVE THE PLANET. RECYCLE!

We've invited aliens from all over the galaxy to Fantasy Fest this year and we don't want them to think we have a trashy planet. Help us make a good impression, save the planet's resources and make this the greenest Fantasy Fest ever by recycling as you eat, drink and party.

Putting together a recycling program for an event of this magnitude requires lots of people working together. Fantasy Fest sponsor Coca-Cola, the wonderful officials from the City of Key West and its Public Works and Community Relations Departments, Waste Management, the volunteers who help with the Street Fair and the 3Wishes.com Fantasy Fest Parade route and, of course, the Tourist Development Association and Market Share Company, who produce Fantasy Fest, have each brought something special to creating a viable recycling project for Fantasy Fest.

Once again, one of the festival's most loyal sponsors, Coca-Cola, is loaning the festival more than 100 recycle bins, so a well-marked receptacle will be placed at every corner in the Fantasy Zone. Waste Management is now able to accept all seven of the hard plastics categories, making even more drinking cups recyclable. Look for recycle bins on each street corner along Friday's Masquerade March.

The City has purchased different bags for recycling (clear) and for regular trash (black). Both bags will be distributed to the street vendors during Fantasy Fest. Public Works will extend their pick up hours during the heaviest days of the festival. Please help when you see cleanup service vehicles. Let them through so they can continue the trash and cleanup efforts that make our city a shining jewel!

"Recycling is an important priority for Key West year-round and we are proud of the team that has come together to keep things clean and green during the All Hallows Intergalactic Freak Show, said festival director, Linda O'Brien.

OFFICIAL MEDALLION PENDANT OF FANTASY FEST 2015 –

"The Avatar"

ALEXANDER J. CALDER ARTS MANAGEMENT, LLC

Alexander J. Calder Arts Management, LLC has partnered with the renowned artist and sculptor, Daniel J. Riccio, to create a unique collectible medallion pendant to commemorate Fantasy Fest 2015. "The Avatar" is a truly beautiful sculpted piece of wearable art, designed exclusively for the Fantasy Fest enthusiast. Each piece is numbered and signed by the artist. Production is limited to no more than 750 bronze and 200 sterling silver pendants.

Interesting facts about "The Avatar": It is approximately 50mm in size and is cast from 10 different components pieced together by hand. The bronze is mixed for each pour which adds individuality. The medallion contains an internal bell, which produces sound. Pictured is the male side of the two-sided pendant, with both a male and female face, featuring eyes that float. A trident clapper produces a musical voice inviting good karma. The Avatar includes both a wearable pendant and a convenient display stand—so you will be able to enjoy your fantasy treasure for many years to come.

Share your experience and create great memories. You don't have to wear much, but don't be caught at Fantasy Fest 2015 without your official Avatar medallion pendant.

Once the 950th pendant is sold, the mold will be destroyed and there will no longer be any available. Order yours TODAY, as early orders will receive lower-numbered pendants.
